

The constantly updated catalogs of LED-based lighting products developed at "Center of LED and Optoelectronic Technologies of the NAS of Belarus" can be downloaded here

MINSK, 17 April (BelTA) - Belarus' light industry development strategy should be aimed at expanding the product assortment and increasing the competitiveness of the domestic light industry ...

We have been in the LED lighting market since 2013. Every year, our employees carry out several nationwide projects and solve important engineering problems for our clients. The production of ledz ...

Light industry in Belarus occupies, according to various estimates, about 28-30% of the total production of non-food products. The largest enterprises in the industry are part of the Belleprom concern and ...

Domestic light industry products are in demand abroad: over 65% of production is exported to 73 countries. However, to compete with foreign manufacturers and reduce dependence ...

According to products occupy the third in the table (46.5%), As of of of Belarusian republic) ("Belleprom" concern).

The light industry of the Republic of Belarus constitutes more than 2,000 enterprises with the total number of employees in excess of 82,000 people. 55% of the products made by Belarusian light ...

Belarusian optical industry has a great tradition. This was proved by the latest revolution in optical manufacturing brought from Belarus - MagnetoRheological Finishing (MRF). The technology was ...

INMODELS- is a mother agency, opened in 2015 by two models - Inna Smirnova and Natalia Litvinenko. The agency is engaged in the search of models and development of their international career and ...

The light industry of Belarus comprises almost 2,000 organizations with a total workforce of about 80,000. It produces textiles, clothing, leather and fur products.

Web: <https://www.busydoniemiecwaldii.pl>