

Bidding for Joint Military-Civilian Optical Cable Project

The contract opportunity involves the installation of fiber optic cables on a federal military installation, the McMullen Target Complex, which is owned and operated by the United States Navy.

Bids were solicited via the internet with one received. Work locations and funding will be determined with each order, with an estimated completion date of Sept. 11, 2030.

Anyone interested in doing business with the government can use this system to search opportunities. Opportunities include pre-solicitation notices, solicitation notices, award notices, and sole source ...

The Army Contracting Command is seeking information for a Request for Information (RFI) to upgrade the Fiber Optic Cable Network at the Letterkenny Munitions Center (LEMC). A firm ...

Discover funding opportunities to rapidly field technology to the American warfighter. We seek and will find new technologies, approaches, and methods to ensure our military maintains a decisive ...

Contract opportunities are procurement notices from federal contracting offices. Anyone interested in doing business with the government can use this system to search opportunities. Opportunities ...

Find information on available USACE opportunities through the Contract Opportunities website. Complete the appropriate forms stated in or provided in the synopsis or solicitation.

Search millions of relevant federal contract opportunities by agency, due date, contracting officer, NAICS, PSC, set aside and much more

A commercial wireless edge network architecture that bridges to military systems and the reverse is essential across all stages of this effort to manage data transfer from sensors and weapon/fire control ...

Bidding for Joint Military-Civilian Optical Cable Project

Web: <https://www.busydoniemiecwaldii.pl>