

China Mobile builds optical cable in Thailand

The SJC2 cable, led by CMI and its partners, is the latest submarine cable project completed in the Asia Pacific. Through its planned connection with ...

HONG KONG, July 18, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- China Mobile International Limited (CMI) officially activated the Southeast Asia-Japan Cable 2 (SJC2) on 16 July 2025. Spanning 10,500 kilometers, ...

By combining FiberHome's expertise in optical fiber and cable with Thailand's geographical advantages and abundant human resources, the base will serve as a regional hub integrating R& D, ...

The first phase of the project is mainly for outdoor and soft optical cable manufacturing. After it is put into operation in 2025, it will have an annual production capacity of millions of core ...

Charoong Thai Wire & Cable PLC. manufactures and distributes high-quality aluminum /copper conductor cables and optical cables, under the CTW brand, reaching both government and private ...

The SEA-H2X Consortium has appointed HMN Technologies Co., Limited (HMN Tech) to build the cable in a fully funded project which will greatly enhance intra-Asian connectivity. The ...

Moreover, China's China Mobile International and China Unicom Global are key players in the SEA-H2X cable system, a 5,000-km network that connects Hong Kong, Hainan, the Philippines, ...

On June 4, FiberHome Communications' subsidiary Thailand Ruisen Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as "Ruisen") held a groundbreaking ceremony for its optical fiber and cable manufacturing ...

For Southeast Asia, these cables are particularly vital in supporting the region's ambitious goal of becoming a central digital hub and its projected digital economy growth to $1 trillion by...

The SJC2 cable, led by CMI and its partners, is the latest submarine cable project completed in the Asia-Pacific region.

The SJC2 cable, led by CMI and its partners, is the latest submarine cable project completed in the Asia Pacific. Through its planned connection with the PEACE cable, which became ...

China Mobile builds optical cable in Thailand

Web: <https://www.busydoniemiecwaldii.pl>