

The Southern Member States Steering Committee (SMS-SC) released on 27 October 2023 an update of the Working Document on the Work ...

Check out the different types of legal act that enable the EU treaties to achieve their aims: regulations, directives, opinions and more.

Dear members of the Southern Zone Steering Committee, der that their comments are not properly addressed by the zRMS. This letter is specifically focusing on cases when France is acting as ...

Complying with European regulations is not optional. For any company operating within the European Union (EU) market, European regulatory compliance--or compliance--is a ...

Applicants are expected to submit a full dossier covering all points as requested by Article 33 of Regulation (EC) 1107/2009 and following Commission regulation (EU) No 284/2013 of 1 March 2013.

In Deloitte Luxembourg, she provides insight and guidance to credit institutions on the latest regulatory developments, including on sustainabiliy-related regulations.

In this article, we outline crucial changes in customs and international trade going into effect throughout 2024, and offer insights into what these changes mean for European businesses ...

This third edition of Better Regulation Practices across the European Union critically examines steps taken by EU Member States to promote the quality of rulemaking across the entire policy cycle for ...

Regulations and decisions become binding automatically throughout the EU on their date of application. However, they may require changes in national legislation, and may require implementation by ...

The Southern Member States Steering Committee (SMS-SC) released on 27 October 2023 an update of the Working Document on the Work-Sharing of the Southern Zone Member States ...

Web: <https://www.busydoniemiecwaldii.pl>