

Kenya's inventory of armoured vehicles continues to grow, with the country recently taking into service new DCD Springbuck armoured personnel carriers (APCs) from South Africa and second ...

The event was presided over by Interior Cabinet Secretary Onesimus Kipchumba Murkomen, who highlighted the role of the vehicles in contributing to a reported 70% reduction in ...

Key players in the Kenya armor materials market are focusing on innovation and strategic partnerships to cater to the growing demand for protective solutions across military, law enforcement, and civilian ...

The Kenya Defence Forces in January received 6,730 pieces of advanced protective equipment, such as soft body armor, ballistic helmets and ballistic plates from United States Africa ...

As Kenya continues its efforts to secure its borders and maintain regional stability, the partnership with the United States plays a pivotal role. The advanced protective equipment received ...

According to Kindiki, the initial budget for the five-year program had been set at 20 billion Kenyan shillings ($129 million). The administration of President William Ruto took over at hard ...

The security and defense private sector in Kenya is generally governed through the Firearms Act which defines the criteria for registration of licensed firearms dealers. Beyond firearms ...

This case study underscores the transformative effect of advanced tactical gear on the operational capabilities of the Kenya Police Force, demonstrating the vital role of modern equipment in ...

According to Kindiki, the initial budget for the five-year program had been set at 20 billion Kenyan shillings ($129 million). The administration of ...

It can be equipped with additional armor to achieve a ballistic protection level up to STANAG level 3. Its V-shaped hull protects against explosions, while various fire protection options ...

Kenya is set to receive sophisticated military equipment at the onset of January 2024 to curb the cases of terrorism and banditry. According to a statement from Counter Terrorism Policing, ...

Web: <https://www.busydoniemiecwaldii.pl>