

UNHCR is working in South Sudan to protect the most vulnerable and provide displaced people, refugees and refugee returnees with life-saving relief items, shelter and protection services.

From January to June 2025, protection risks in South Sudan escalated amid renewed national conflict, particularly following the house arrest of First Vice President Riek Machar.

South Sudan continues to face severe humanitarian emergencies driven by climate shocks, relentless violence, multiple disease outbreaks and a struggling economy. These intersecting crises have ...

Stay on top of South Sudan latest developments on the ground with Al Jazeera's fact-based news, exclusive video footage, photos and updated maps.

JUBA/GENEVA - The UN Commission on Human Rights in South Sudan has sounded the alarm over the country's rapidly escalating crisis, calling for urgent, coordinated action to protect ...

Learn about the civil war in South Sudan, sanctions imposed by the United States and Europe, and other recent developments on CFR's Global Conflict Tracker.

Hunger intensifies in South Sudan as 7.8 million people face high acute food insecurity and 2.2 million children suffer acute malnutrition Conflict and displacement drive worsening crisis, ...

GENEVA - UN experts* today warned that South Sudan is turning into a catastrophic human rights and humanitarian crisis, urging immediate steps to protect civilians, facilitate ...

Situation Report in English on South Sudan and 1 other country about Coordination, Education, Epidemic, Flood and more; published on 30 Apr 2026 by OCHA

Web: <https://www.busydoniemiecwaldii.pl>