

Sudan ESCON connectors low-temperature resistant direct from manufacturer

Customer needed hermetic radar packaging that is lightweight, low CTE, and high thermal conductivity--no single material met all requirements.

For this reason, we supply custom cable connectors that are used in fire safety equipment, gas and flame detection equipment, sewer and storm drain services, and even radar guns.

Order custom electrical connectors tailored to specific applications, including high-current connectors, heat-resistant connectors, vacuum connectors, and more.
