

UKCA marking is a new conformity assessment marking for goods placed on the market in the United Kingdom (UK) after the Brexit transition period. It is required for most goods previously covered by ...

The Department for Business and Trade (DBT) has published updated guidance on the recognition of UKCA and CE product markings in Great Britain.

Achieving CE compliance involves identifying the specific regulations that apply to your product, assessing your product against these regulations, compiling detailed technical documentation and ...

This article covers CE marking requirements for products placed in the UK and includes a comparison between CE and UKCA marking rules.

This guide provides an overview of the steps businesses need to take when placing a product on the market in Great Britain (England, Scotland and Wales) under the UK Conformity ...

Practical information for businesses placing a product on the market which falls in scope of the UK Conformity Assessed (UKCA) or Conformité Européenne (CE) regimes. Follow these ...

For products which do not have hEN or Designated Standards, CE or UKCA Marking is voluntary. The BBA can support and guide you through a range of accredited and approved testing for your ...

Our CE & UKCA Marking training course provides a practical approach to what you need to know to place your products on the market and into service.

Our product safety specialists can help you through the various stages of UKCA & CE Self Certification. Learn more about our UKCA & CE Self Assessments here.

We provide unbiased and accurate information to explain the UKCA Mark without the legal jargon and with the right level of technical support to help you on your way! Instant and cost-effective solutions ...

Web: <https://www.busydoniemiecwaldii.pl>