

Upgraded version of Ghana's security-enabled telecommunications shelter

The Government of Ghana announced a partnership with seven tech companies to deploy a new shared infrastructure for affordable 5G mobile ...

Ghana's Ministry of Communication and Technology announced that leading mobile operators MTN, Telecel, and AirtelTigo will collectively invest US$150 million in 2025 to upgrade their ...

The Government of Ghana announced a partnership with seven tech companies to deploy a new shared infrastructure for affordable 5G mobile broadband services across Ghana. The ...

for the communications industry. As NCA strides into the future and as we can all see the impact that communications services have made in our society, this perhaps is the best and opportune time for ...

Ghana's proposed Cybersecurity (Amendment) Bill 2025, sponsored by the Ministry of Communication and Digitalisation, represents a significant ...

Recent reporting confirms several key developments: The Ministry of Communications, Digital Technology and Innovations has proposed a restructuring involving AT Ghana and Telecel.

The report estimates that improvement of e-government in Ghana could raise GHS 5.8 billion in tax revenues by reducing leakage and improving collection efficiency - building on the ...

The move, ordered by the communications minister amidst threats of network shutdown due to AT Ghana's unpaid debts to American Tower ...

Mrs. Owusu-Ekuful outlined Ghana's evolution from basic 1G voice communication in the 1990s to the ground-breaking potential of 5G. Each technological leap, from 2G's introduction of SMS ...

The National Communications Authority (NCA) has outlined an ambitious five-year strategic plan to bolster Ghana's communications landscape. Ghana's communications ecosystem ...

The move, ordered by the communications minister amidst threats of network shutdown due to AT Ghana's unpaid debts to American Tower Corporation, underscores the urgency of ...

Ghana's proposed Cybersecurity (Amendment) Bill 2025, sponsored by the Ministry of Communication and Digitalisation, represents a significant legislative effort to evolve the nation's ...

Upgraded version of Ghana's security-enabled telecommunications shelter

The National Communications Authority (NCA) has outlined an ambitious five-year strategic plan to bolster Ghana's communications landscape. ...

Web: <https://www.busydoniemiecwaldii.pl>